OFFICIAL COMMITTEE OF UNSECURED CREDITORS of Voyager Digital Holdings, Inc., *et al.

Case No. 22-20943 (MEW)
in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York

c/o McDermott Will & Emery LLP
Attention: Darren Azman, Joseph B. Evans, and Charles R. Gibbs
One Vanderbilt Avenue
New York, NY 10017-3852

To: Customers and Creditors of Voyager Digital Holdings, Inc., et al.

I. Introduction

The Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the “Committee”) was appointed by the Office of the United States Trustee to represent the interests of all unsecured creditors in the chapter 11 bankruptcy cases (the “Bankruptcy Cases”) of Voyager Digital Holdings, Inc., et al. (collectively, “Voyager”). We write concerning Voyager’s third amended chapter 11 plan filed on January 13, 2023 (the “Plan”).<sup>1</sup> For the reasons set forth below, the Committee strongly recommends that you vote as follows:

Item 3 of the Ballot: VOTE TO ACCEPT the Plan.

Item 5 of the Ballot: OPT-IN to contribute your direct claims.

The deadline to vote on whether to accept or reject the Plan is February 22, 2023. The hearing to confirm the Plan is currently scheduled on March 2, 2023.

II. Why You Should Accept the Plan

The Committee’s goal is to distribute the maximum amount of crypto and fiat as quickly as possible. With those goals in mind, the proposed but now-terminated deal with FTX.US that was the result of Voyager’s auction process was seemingly an attractive option. As part of the negotiations for the FTX.US transaction, the Committee had sought a “toggle” to be included in Voyager’s original chapter 11 plan so that if the transaction with FTX failed to close, Voyager would have the ability to distribute crypto to customers outside of a sale without delay. The Committee fought to include that “toggle” in the original plan and reached an agreement with Voyager to do so. FTX, however, refused to include such a provision in any plan contemplating their transaction. Ultimately, as we all now know, despite FTX’s representations concerning its financial health and ability to consummate the transaction, FTX filed for bankruptcy and Sam Bankman-Fried is under indictment. This came as a surprise to the Committee as it did to most of the world.

<sup>1</sup> All documents filed in Voyager’s Bankruptcy Cases are available free of charge at <https://cases.stretto.com/voyager/court-docket/>. The Plan is available at Exhibit A to Docket No. 863. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein have the meanings ascribed to them in the Plan.

Following the demise of FTX, Voyager and the Committee acted quickly to secure a new method by which crypto and fiat could be distributed to creditors. The Committee considered two options: (1) self-liquidation; and (2) an alternative transaction with a third party. For the following reasons, the Committee supports Voyager's proposed transaction with BAM Trading Services Inc. d/b/a Binance.US ("Binance.US").

First, the Committee considered a "self-liquidation" centered around a distribution of crypto directly from Voyager's platform to customers. This option avoided the risks associated with a third-party purchaser. However, there are significant regulatory and practical hurdles in returning hundreds of millions of dollars in fiat and crypto to customers across the United States. For example, many creditors prefer distributions in crypto, but Voyager was the only place they traded and held crypto. Those customers would need to obtain self-hosted wallets or a new crypto exchange account to accept distributions. Even after educating those customers on that subject, a self-liquidation plan would likely include a large number of test transactions and other administrative burdens. Thus, an operating crypto exchange with the infrastructure to handle millions of retail customer crypto transactions appeared to be the most efficient option. Ultimately, the Committee determined that conducting a self-liquidation would materially decrease recoveries for a variety of reasons (e.g., value leakage from mass sales of crypto and working capital funding) and delay returning fiat and crypto to creditors, as compared to a sale to a third party. Moreover, Voyager would receive no cash consideration from a purchaser in a self-liquidation, thereby further reducing creditor recoveries.

Second, after FTX's collapse, other potential purchasers began to engage with Voyager. Throughout this process, the Committee had extensive discussions with a number of interested parties to assess the relative value of their offers, including their ability to close timely. Ultimately, the only purchaser that presented an economically attractive and actionable offer was Binance.US. In light of the FTX implosion, the Committee has worked diligently to negotiate protections in the asset purchase agreement with Binance.US to accelerate recoveries to creditors and ensure that all crypto will be safe in the event of a Binance.US insolvency.

More specifically, one of the Committee's concerns with the initial Binance.US proposal was the way in which Voyager would transfer crypto to Binance.US. The initial Binance.US proposal contemplated the transfer of nearly all of Voyager's crypto to Binance.US immediately upon closing. However, certain of that crypto would not be made available to some customers for up to six months because of, among other things, regulatory restrictions in four jurisdictions. The Committee viewed this structure as sub-optimal and voiced its concerns to Voyager and Binance.US.

Following these discussions, Binance.US supported our efforts to ensure that creditors receive distributions in the greatest amount as quickly as possible and agreed to restructure the way in which crypto is transferred. In short, after the transaction closes, crypto will move from Voyager to Binance.US on a weekly basis, and the only crypto that will be transferred is crypto that will be immediately distributed to customer accounts. In other words, each creditor's allocation of crypto distributions will remain at Voyager, rather than the Binance.US platform, until that crypto is ready to be made available to such creditor in accordance with the asset purchase agreement. As a result, the time between when Binance.US receives crypto from Voyager and when customers can access, trade, convert, sell, stake, or withdraw that crypto is now very limited. Binance.US has agreed to other revisions in the amended asset purchase agreement that protect Voyager creditors and the transferred crypto.

Additionally, the new Plan now includes the “toggle” feature discussed above. If the Binance.US transaction fails to close for any reason, the Plan permits Voyager to conduct a self-liquidation. If Binance.US cannot or does not close, Voyager will not need to develop a new plan and instead can continue with a self-liquidation to avoid further delays and costs.

The Committee believes that the Binance.US transaction, relative to all alternatives (whether in the form of an alternative sale transaction or a self-liquidation), provides the highest and best value for creditors, as it offers both the highest value available for creditor recoveries as well as the fastest route to such recoveries.

The Committee supports the Binance.US transaction and the Plan, and encourages you to

VOTE TO ACCEPT THE PLAN.

a. How to Vote to Accept the Plan.

Item 3 on the ballot you will receive will include the option to vote to accept or reject the Plan. Below is what the voting box will look like:

Item 3. Vote on Plan.

The Holder of the Class 3 Account Holder Claims against the Debtors set forth in Item 1 votes to (please check one):

☒ ACCEPT (vote FOR) the Plan

☐ REJECT (vote AGAINST) the Plan

III. Why You Should Opt-In to Contributing Direct Claims

If the Plan is confirmed, all causes of action that Voyager is entitled to bring against third parties for damage they caused to Voyager will be transferred to the Wind-Down Entity. The Committee, not Voyager, will select a Trustee to control the Wind-Down Entity. The Wind-Down Entity will investigate all potential causes of action against third parties and pursue litigation for their roles in Voyager’s demise. The Wind-Down Entity will also be required to respond to inquiries from state and federal regulators, reconcile claims, and handle various administrative tasks, including determining future additional distributions to creditors.

In addition to these causes of action that can only be commenced by the Wind-Down Entity, certain creditors may have direct causes of action against third parties. However, it is difficult and expensive for individual creditors to sue third parties for losses. Accordingly, the Committee has negotiated with Voyager to include a mechanism in the Plan that allows you to contribute your direct causes of action to the Wind-Down Entity. By opting-in to contribute your causes of action to the Wind-Down Entity, you are giving the Wind-Down Entity the right to pursue those causes of action on your behalf. As a result, the Wind-Down Entity will be able to use its resources to sue third parties on your behalf, and all recoveries from those causes of action will inure to the benefit of creditors.

Put simply, “opting-in” to contribute your direct claims to the Wind-Down Entity is a valuable step towards making creditors whole because the Wind-Down Entity will have additional sources of recoveries and the financial means to efficiently pursue that litigation, rather than individual creditors expending their own money to commence separate litigation against third parties.

Accordingly, the Committee strongly encourages you to

OPT-IN TO CONTRIBUTE YOUR DIRECT CLAIMS.

Unsecured Creditors

By checking this box, you elect to opt IN to the Third-Party Releases.

Article VIII.B of the Plan contains the following Third-Party Release:

Except as expressly set forth in the Plan, effective on the Effective Date, in exchange for good and valuable consideration, the adequacy of which is hereby confirmed, each Released Party is hereby conclusively, absolutely, unconditionally, irrevocably, and forever released and discharged by each and all of the Releasing Parties, in each case on behalf of themselves and their respective successors, assigns, and representatives, from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, matured or unmatured, existing or hereafter arising, in law, equity, contract, tort, or otherwise, including any derivative claims asserted or assertable on behalf of any of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert in its own right (whether individually or collectively or on behalf of the Holder of any Claim against, or Interest in, a Debtor or other Entity), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors (including the management, ownership, or operation thereof), their capital structure, the purchase, sale, or rescission of the purchase or sale of any security of the Debtors, the subject matter of, or the transactions or events giving rise to, any Claim or Interest that is treated in the Plan, the business or contractual arrangements between any Debtor and any Released Party, the Debtors’ out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among a Debtor and another Debtor, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, filing, or consummation of the Definitive Documents or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Definitive Documents, the pursuit of consummation of the Plan, the administration and implementation of the Restructuring Transactions, or upon any other act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence related to the Debtors taking place on or before the Effective Date, provided that nothing in Article VIII.B of the Plan shall be construed to release the Released Parties from actual fraud, willful misconduct, or gross negligence as determined by a Final Order.

Entry of the Confirmation Order shall constitute the Bankruptcy Court’s approval, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019, of the releases described in Article VIII.B of the Plan, which includes by reference each of the related provisions and definitions contained in the Plan, and further, shall constitute the Bankruptcy Court’s finding that each release described in Article VIII.B of the Plan is: (1) in exchange for the good and valuable consideration provided by the Released Parties; (2) a good-faith settlement and compromise of such Causes of Action; (3) in the best interests of the Debtors and all Holders of Claims and Interests; (4) fair, equitable, and reasonable; (5) given and made after due notice and opportunity for hearing; (6) a sound exercise of the Debtors’ business judgment; and (7) except to the extent contemplated by Article IV.E and Article IV.F of the Plan, a bar to any of the Releasing Parties or the Debtors or Wind-Down Debtors or their respective Estates or Wind-Down Entity asserting any Cause of Action related thereto, of any kind, against any of the Released Parties or their property.

Definitions Related to the Debtor Release and the Third-Party Release:

1. Under the Plan, “Released Parties” means, collectively, in each case in its capacity as such: (a) the Debtors; (b) the Wind-Down Debtors; (c) the Committee, and each of the members thereof; (d) each of the Released Professionals; (e) Purchaser and each of its Related Parties; and (f) each of the Released Voyager Employees (subject to the limitations contained in Article IV.E and Article IV.F of the Plan); provided that, if the Asset Purchase Agreement is terminated, Purchaser and each of its Related Parties shall not be “Released Parties” under the Plan.

Class 9 — Existing Equity Interests

2. Under the Plan, “Releasing Parties” means, collectively, in each case in its capacity as such: (a) the Debtors; (b) the Wind-Down Debtors; (c) the Committee, and each of the members thereof; (d) each of the Released Professionals; (e) each of the Released Voyager Employees; (f) Purchaser and each of its Related Parties to the extent Purchaser is able to bind such Related Parties; (g) all Holders of Claims that vote to accept the Plan and affirmatively opt into the releases provided by the Plan; (h) all Holders of Claims that vote to reject the Plan and affirmatively opt into the releases provided by the Plan; and (i) all Holders of Claims or Interests that abstain from voting (or are otherwise not entitled to vote) on the Plan and affirmatively opt into the releases provided by the Plan; provided that, if the Asset Purchase Agreement is terminated, Purchaser and each of its Related Parties shall not be “Releasing Parties” under the Plan.

Item 3. Contributed Third-Party Claims.

If the Plan is confirmed, all causes of action that the Debtors are entitled to bring against third parties not released under the Plan (the “Litigation Targets”) will be transferred to the Wind-Down Entity. In addition to these causes of action that can only be commenced by the Wind-Down Entity, certain creditors may have direct causes of action against the Litigation Targets. However, it is difficult and expensive for individual creditors to sue third parties for losses. Accordingly, creditors can elect to contribute direct causes of action to the Wind-Down Entity. By opting in to contribute causes of action to the Wind-Down Entity, you are giving the Wind-Down Entity the right to pursue those direct causes of action on your behalf together with other creditors. As a result, the Wind-Down Entity will be able to use its resources to sue the Litigation Targets on those direct causes of action, and all recoveries will inure to the benefit of all creditors and not just those that agreed to contribute their claims. For the avoidance of doubt, the decision to “opt in” to contribute third-party claims is entirely voluntary, and the failure to “opt in” does not prejudice any electing creditors’ rights.

By electing such option on this Ballot, you agree that, subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date and the formation of the Wind-Down Entity, you will be deemed, without further action, (i) to have irrevocably contributed your Contributed Third-Party Claims to the Wind-Down Entity, and (ii) to have agreed to execute any documents reasonably requested by the Debtors or the Wind-Down Entity to memorialize and effectuate such contribution.

The Committee strongly encourages you to elect to contribute your Contributed Third-Party Claims to the Wind-Down Entity, which will allow the Wind-Down Entity to potentially seek greater recoveries for the benefit of Holders of Claims and Interests.

By checking this box, you elect to contribute your Contributed Third-Party Claims to the Wind-Down Entity.

Definitions Related to Contributed Third-Party Claims:

Under the Plan, “Contributed Third-Party Claims” means all direct Causes of Action that any Contributing Claimant has against any Person (other than a Debtor) that had a direct relationship with the Debtors, their predecessors, or respective affiliates and that harmed such Contributing Claimant in the claimant’s capacity as a creditor of Voyager, including (a) all Causes of Action based on, arising out of, or related to the marketing, sale, and issuance of Cryptocurrency that at any point was held or offered on Voyager’s platform; (b) all Causes of Action based on, arising out of, or related to the alleged misrepresentation of any of the Debtors’ financial information, business operations, or related internal controls; and (c) all Causes of Action based on, arising out of, or related to any alleged failure to disclose, or actual or attempted cover up or obfuscation of, any of the Debtors’ conduct prior to the Petition Date; provided, however, that Contributed Third-Party Claims do not include (i) any derivative claims of the Debtors; (ii) any direct claims against the Released Parties; (iii) any direct Causes of Action that any Contributing Claimant has against Mark Cuban, Dallas Basketball Limited d/b/a Dallas Mavericks, the National Basketball Association, and any of their Related Parties; or (iv) any direct Causes of Action that any Contributing Claimant, in its capacity as an equity holder of Voyager Digital Ltd., has that are asserted in the currently filed complaint, dated as of July 6, 2022, in the Ontario Superior Court of Justice by Francine De Sousa, against Voyager Digital Ltd., Stephen Ehrlich, Philip Eytan, Evan Psaropoulos, Lewis Bateman, Krisztian Toth, Jennifer Ackart, Glenn Stevens, and Brian Brooks.
